VOLUNTEER LIABILITY AGREEMENT

An individual or a member of a group or organization engaged in any volunteer conservation or ecological project in a county park is considered a park visitor. The individual or member of a group or organization shall not be considered an employee of the Clayton County Conservation Board while involved in a volunteer project on county property.

The Clayton County Conservation Board shall not be an employer of any such individual or member of a group or organization and shall assume no responsibility for providing workmen's compensation or other benefits normally provided to employees. The Clayton County Conservation Board assumes no duty to such individuals or members of a group or organization other than that owed to them as a park visitor.

I, the undersigned, in consideration of the learning experience to be obtained by my involvement in a volunteer project on county property, understand and agree that I am a park visitor and not an employee of the Clayton County Conservation Board. I further agree to indemnify and save the Clayton County Conservation Board, its members and/or employees and Clayton County, Iowa from any and all costs or liability of any nature whatsoever, arising out of or as a result of my involvement in any volunteer project.
